

Michael Smith

old man dancing

Now available on compact disc
from Bird Avenue.

With Old Man Dancing songwriter Michael Smith reclaims his rightful place as "Master of the Story Song," introducing a quirky cast of characters from true crime and pop culture, and conjured-up from his vivid and surprising imagination.

Smith accompanies himself on multiple guitars, bass and percussion in just-right musical arrangements that underscore his multiple gifts as lyricist, composer and performer.

In Old Man Dancing, we encounter an unlikely grouping of people and stories, and in time, perhaps, come to grasp the inner world of this master songwriter still in his prime.
